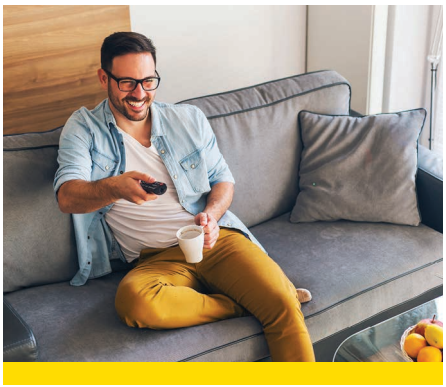
WELLS FARGO Home Mortgage

Get a little closer to your new home with a closing cost credit



Buying a new home is exciting — and getting money towards closing costs could make it happen sooner by taking you less time to save for your home.

Lower closing costs
Our Dream. Plan. Home.® closing cost credit may provide up to $5,000 for one-time closing costs, such as appraisal and processing fees.[1] Knowing you'll have the help and support you need, you may go ahead with confidence.

Expanded benefits
This closing cost credit could be combined with many different mortgage programs, including:

- Low down payment options
- Wells Fargo-approved down payment assistance programs
- Specialized programs for first-time homebuyers, union members, employees of participating companies, service members, and veterans

Here to help you
I'm ready to help you understand how this program could benefit you — and help you get into your new home sooner. I'll work with you every step of the way, and look forward to speaking with you soon.
