FEATURES & FAVORITES

More space, more flexibility, and a convenient Raleigh location... all at an approachable price point! Welcome to 816 Peyton Street, an updated, single-story brick ranch offering approximately 1,949 square feet, four bedrooms, three full bathrooms, and an additional half bath just minutes from Downtown Raleigh. With nearly 2,000 square feet on one level, this home offers room to spread out without sacrificing convenience. The open floor plan connects the main living spaces, while an updated kitchen with a center island and pantry creates a functional setting for everyday living and entertaining. Updated flooring, refreshed bathrooms, and multiple living areas add to the home's versatility. Four bedrooms offer space for guests, a home office, hobbies, or simply the extra room that's increasingly hard to find at this price point. The main-level primary suite features a walk-in closet, while the home's thoughtful layout accommodates a variety of living arrangements. Outside, a nearly quarter-acre lot provides room to enjoy the outdoors, complemented by a covered porch, backyard, and off-street parking. Located in Southeast Raleigh's Stratford Park neighborhood, 816 Peyton Street offers convenient access to Downtown Raleigh, local restaurants, shopping, parks, and major commuter routes. For buyers seeking an updated four-bedroom home near Downtown Raleigh with generous square footage, single-level living, and a flexible floor plan, this property offers a compelling combination of space, location, and value.
