

Granville County records indicate the property was built in 1901, whereas the seller's mortgage documents indicate the property was built in 1956.