6. INSPECTIONS/PROPERTY ACCESS. At all reasonable times during the course of construction, and with a minimum of four (4) business days' written notice of the Client's intent to inspect, the Client or the Client's agent may enter and inspect the House for the limited purposes of (I) determining whether the construction performed or being performed conforms with the Plans and Specifications and the locally prevailing standards of construction and/or (II) to consult with Builder regarding the construction. Should the Client hire a person or entity to perform an inspection on the House, the individual conducting the inspection must be both a licensed NC residential general contractor and a licensed home inspector. In the event that during construction, the Client or the Client's agent shall reasonably believe that such construction is not proceeding in accordance with the Plans and Specifications or locally prevailing standards of construction, the Client shall give written notice within twenty four (24) hours of any inspection to the Builder specifying each particular item of deviation, deficiency, or omission. Upon receipt of the Client's notice, the Builder shall, if in agreement with the items(s) listed by the Client, promptly and diligently correct all items listed. Should the Builder not agree with any item(s) of deviation, deficiency, or omission so specified, the Builder may choose an independent, third party, licensed, NC residential general contractor ("Inspector") to inspect the House with regard and only with regard to the particular item of deviation, deficiency, or omission in dispute. The Inspector will submit a written report specifying with regard to each particular item of deviation, deficiency, or omission in dispute, whether each item conforms to the plans and Specifications and locally prevailing standards of construction and, if not, what is required to bring each item into compliance. The decision of the Inspector shall be binding upon the Builder and the Client. The Builder shall promptly and diligently correct each item of deviation, deficiency, or omission identified by the Inspector as being in accordance with the Plans and Specifications or locally prevailing standards of construction. The Client waives all claims regarding and releases the Builder from all claims as to items identified by the Inspector as not being in accordance with the Plans and Specifications or locally prevailing standards of construction. The non-prevailing party whose opinion/decision was not endorsed by the Inspector shall be responsible for the Inspector fees. The Client shall, at the Client's expense, promptly repair any damage to the Property resulting from any activities of the Client, the Client's Agent, and any contractor hired by the Client or Client's Agent. This repair obligation shall survive any termination of this contract.

- a. Property Access. The Client's right of access to the house during construction and prior to completion is expressly conditioned upon the following: The Client's entry shall be in such a manner as to not interfere with the progress of construction of the House, and only as accompanied by the Builder personnel. The Client's entry upon the property and/or in the House shall be at his/her own risk. The Client also acknowledges that construction sites are inherently unsafe and agrees that during construction Builder has no duty to make the site safe for the Client's exercise of this right of access. To the extent allowed by law, the Client releases any and all claims for damages and/or losses, irrespective of how caused, as against the Builder and its agents related to or arising out of the Client's exercise of this right of access. (As used in this Section the term "Client" shall be deemed to include its representatives and invitees). This indemnification obligation shall survive the Closing or termination of this Contract.

Persons not directly connected with the Work shall be kept entirely away from the site during the execution of the Work.
- c. Advertising. The Builder may prominently display its sign at the Property until the completion of the House. (roostbuildingcompany.com/warranty) as indicated herein. Oral requests to the Builder's staff are not acceptable. At the Builder's sole option, the Builder may either (I) make such repairs and corrections, (II) replace any faulty or non-conforming item or condition or (III) pay the Client the reasonable cost of such repair, correction, or replacement. If the Client fails to notify the Builder of the defect within the warranty period, or if the Client does not allow the Builder any and all access to the Property needed to correct the defect during reasonable normal business hours (8:00 AM to 4:00 PM, Monday through Friday), then the Client shall be deemed to have waived any claim against Builder for failure to correct such defect or condition. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, all of the Builder's obligations and responsibilities pursuant to this subsection shall automatically expire one year from the date of Closing. The Client understands that non-payment of any outstanding invoices or change orders is grounds for cancellation of warranty coverage. The warranty made by the Builder pursuant to subsection a. above is to the exclusion of all other warranties, expressed or implied, and the Builder hereby disclaims any and all such other warranties, express or implied, including but not limited to any warranty of habitability, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose. The Builder shall not be liable for any reason under any circumstances to the Client or anyone claiming through the Client for monetary damages of any kind, including secondary, consequential, punitive, general, special, or indirect damages.

- b. Disclaimer and Limitation on Builder's Liability. The warranty made by the Builder pursuant to subsection a. above is to the exclusion of all other warranties, expressed or implied, and the Builder hereby disclaims any and all such other warranties, express or implied, including but not limited to any warranty of habitability, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose. The Builder shall not be liable for any reason under any circumstances to the Client or anyone claiming through the Client for monetary damages of any kind, including secondary, consequential, punitive, general, special, or indirect damages.
- c. Mandatory Binding Arbitration. The Client and the Builder shall submit to binding arbitration for any and all disputes which may arise between them regarding this contract and/or the Property, including, but not limited to any disputes regarding (I) the Builder's construction and delivery of the home, (II) the Builder's performance under any punch-list or inspection agreement, and (III) the Builder's warranty pursuant to section 8A above. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the North Carolina Revised Uniform Arbitration Act and the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association and shall take place in the county in which the property is located. To the extent possible, the proceeding shall be conducted under rules which provide for an expedited hearing. In the event of a conflict between the North Carolina Revised Uniform Arbitration Act and the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association, the North Carolina Revised Uniform Arbitration Act shall control. The filing fee for the arbitration shall be paid by the party filing the arbitration demand, but the arbitrator shall have the right to assess or allocate the filing fees and any other costs of the arbitration as part of the arbitrator's final order. The arbitration shall be binding and final, and either party shall have the right to seek judicial enforcement of the arbitration award.
- d. Mold Notice, Disclosure, and Disclaimer. Mold occurs naturally in the environment. It spreads by means of microscopic spores transported by air movement and is found everywhere life can be supported. Whether or not you will experience mold growth in your residence will depend on how you manage and maintain your home. The Builder's responsibility will be limited to things that it can control. Unless it results solely and directly from a breach of its Limited Warranty provided in this document, Builder will never be responsible for any damages, whatsoever (including, but not limited to, property damage, personal injury, loss of income, emotional distress, death, loss of use, or loss of value) caused by mold or by any other agent.

9. COMPLETION, FINAL PAYMENT, AND CONSTRUCTION CERTIFICATES.
