COMMUNITY CHARACTER:

Oxford is a charming historic town in Granville County, known as the "Grandest Little Town in North Carolina." With a rich history dating back to 1761, Oxford offers small-town living with easy access to the Research Triangle (Raleigh, Durham, Chapel Hill). The town features a vibrant downtown with local shops, restaurants, and the Oxford Oaks Distillery. Residents enjoy a slower pace of life while being within 35-45 minutes of major employment centers, universities, and urban amenities.

NOTE: Ivy Meadows offers the perfect balance of small-town charm and accessibility to the Research Triangle. Downtown Raleigh (35 miles), Durham (28 miles), and RDU Airport (38 miles) are all within 35-45 minutes, making Oxford ideal for commuters who value affordability, community, and quality of life.

NOTE: All mileage and estimated times shown above are based on our model home address at Ivy Meadows - 100 Airdale Drive, Oxford, NC 27565.
