Payment Policy

Payment Terms

Final payment is due in full upon completion of system start-up ("Due Date"). Payments can be made by check, credit card, or electronic transfer. Reliable reserves the right to require a credit check and a personal guaranty prior to any work being performed.

Payment is required regardless of inspection results, as any failed inspection will be addressed under warranty at no cost to the customer.

Ownership of the equipment remains with Reliable until the final balance is paid in full OR Reliable remains the owner of any equipment until the payment of the final balance in full.

If you anticipate any issues meeting these terms, please contact us immediately to discuss potential solutions.

Late Payment Penalties

Payments not received within thirty (30) days of the Due Date will incur a late fee of $100 or 15% of the outstanding balance (whichever is greater). Additionally, interest will accrue on the unpaid balance, including the late fee, at a rate of the 1.5% per month (18% annual percentage rate), or if greater, the highest rate allowable by law, starting on the 31st day following the Due Date.

If an invoice remains unpaid for sixty (60) days following the Due Date, the account will be turned over to collections, and the customer will be responsible for any associated fees, including legal costs.

Remedies and Equipment Disablement

Should the account remain unpaid for 90 days, Reliable reserves all remedies under North Carolina law, including but not limited to, the right to: temporarily and non-destructively disable the equipment; obtain a court order to repossess the equipment upon failure to timely pay; void any warranty. In the event of equipment disablement, the action will not damage the equipment and will comply with all applicable laws. Once all payments, including any attorney fees, penalties and interest, is received, the equipment will be promptly re-enabled.

Lien Notification

As permitted under North Carolina law, Reliable reserves the right to file a lien for any unpaid balances.

Late Payment Collection.

You agree to reimburse us for all costs incurred in collecting any overdue payments and related interest, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, legal costs, court costs, and collection agency fees. If a check tendered by you is returned for insufficient funds, uncollected funds or stopped payment, you shall pay us a twenty-five dollar ($25.00) service fee.
