3408 Coleridge offers something increasingly rare in Midtown Raleigh: a beautifully updated, turnkey ranch on a near half-acre lot in Drewry Hills, within walking distance of North Hills. Four bedrooms on the main floor provide the ease of true single-level living, while the spacious basement den creates additional room to spread out — with potential for a private guest suite, retreat, or flexible bonus space. The hard work has already been done. Extensive, thoughtful updates mean no weekend projects, no major renovations, and no long to-do lists — simply move in and start enjoying life. And the lifestyle extends far beyond the home itself. Lace up for a morning run on the greenway, bike to brunch, or head to North Hills for dinner and a movie — all while being positioned in the center of Midtown Raleigh's growing dining, shopping, and entertainment scene. Out back, the oversized lot offers rare flexibility this close to the city, with room for a future pool, outdoor entertaining, gardens, play space, or simply the privacy and breathing room that's becoming harder to find... a home is designed to make life easier and more enjoyable!
