

100 McNaughton Court offers buyers one of the biggest reasons people love Garner — a quieter residential feel while still being incredibly convenient to Raleigh, shopping, dining, parks, healthcare, and major commuter routes. The location provides easy access to US-70, I-40, Downtown Raleigh, White Oak shopping, and everyday conveniences, making it especially appealing for buyers wanting more space without sacrificing accessibility.

Popular Nearby Restaurants

Some favorite local spots nearby include:

- Angie's Restaurant — a longtime Garner favorite known for classic Southern breakfast and comfort food.
- Big Ed's Garner Restaurant — popular for traditional NC-style breakfast and homestyle cooking.

- Taqueria El Toro — authentic Mexican cuisine with a strong local following.
- The Crunkleton — upscale dining and cocktails in nearby Downtown Raleigh for date nights and entertainment.

Grocery & Everyday Shopping

Residents appreciate having multiple grocery and shopping options just minutes away:

- Lowes Foods of Garner
- Food Lion
- ALDI
- Food Lion

In addition, White Oak Crossing nearby offers Target, Home Depot, Best Buy, restaurants, fitness centers, and many national retailers.

Nearby Hospitals & Medical Facilities

Healthcare convenience is another major draw for buyers in this area:

- WakeMed Garner Healthplex — offering emergency services, imaging, and outpatient care.
- WakeMed Garner Emergency Department
- WakeMed Raleigh Campus — full-service hospital located approximately 15–20 minutes away depending on traffic.

Nearby Schools

The area is served by Wake County schools, another reason many families choose Garner:

- Timber Drive Elementary School
- Aversboro Elementary School
- Garner Magnet High School

Why Buyers Love This Area

Buyers are drawn to this part of Garner because it offers:

- Larger homesites and more privacy compared to many newer communities

- Convenient access to Downtown Raleigh while maintaining a suburban feel
- Proximity to parks and recreation including Lake Benson Park, White Deer Nature Center, and the Garner YMCA
- Strong shopping and dining options nearby
- Easier commuting to Raleigh, RTP, and hospitals
- A balance of affordability, space, and convenience compared to some neighboring Wake County markets

The location combines everyday convenience with a more relaxed lifestyle, which continues to make Garner highly attractive to both local and relocation buyers.

