DEFINITIONS

“Additional Users” – Shall mean any Person or Persons who prove permanent residence in the same Unit.

“Association” – Sidney Creek HOA, Inc., a North Carolina nonprofit corporation, its successors or assigns.

“Board of Directors” or “Board” – The Body responsible for administration of the Association, selected as provided in the By Laws and serving the same role as the board of directors under North Carolina law.

“Builder” or “Approved Builder” – Any Person or entity selected by Declarant who purchases one or more Units for the purpose of constructing improvements for later sale to consumers or purchases one or more parcels of land within the community for further subdivision, development, and/or resale in the ordinary course of such persons business.

“Commercial Purposes” – Shall mean those activities which involve, in any way, the provision of goods or services for compensation. “Common Area” – Any real and personal property, including, without limitation, the private roads, landscaped areas, trees, plantings, medians, signage, monuments, lighting, water and sewer, all other lands and all easements and licenses, which the Association owns, leases or holds possessory or use rights in for the common use and enjoyment of the Owners. Common Area shall be the same as “Common Area” under the Declaration.

“Community” – Shall mean Sidney Creek Community. The real property described in the governing Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions of Sidney Creek “Community Amenities” – Shall refer to the buildings, areas and improvements within the Common Area owned by the Association. This includes, but is not limited to, clubhouse, pool, clubhouse, all parks and open spaces, trails, stormwater control measures (SCM) and other facilities owned by Sidney Creek HOA and built for exclusive use of owners and residents of Sidney Creek. “Community Facility Policies” or “Policies” – Shall mean all guidelines, rules, resolutions and policies of the Association, as amended from time to time. Such policies may be enforced by the Association, the Managing Agent, the Board of Directors, and designated representatives thereof.

“Managing Agent” – Shall mean the Association’s management company, including its employees and agents, contracted by the Association to manage the operations of the Association.

“Guest” – Any person that accompanies a Member or Resident in utilizing the Community Amenities.

“Lessee” – Person(s) leasing a residential unit in the Community.

“Member or Resident” – A person entitled and subject to the Common Area and Community Amenities as governed by the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restriction of Sidney Creek HOA.

“Neighborhood” – A separately developed area within the community in which owners of units may have common interests other than those common to all Members of the Association. For example, and by way of illustration and not limitation, each single-family attached or detached housing development phase may constitute a separate Neighborhood, or a neighborhood may be comprised of more than one housing type with other features in common.

“Owner” – One or more Persons who hold the record title to any Unit, including the Declarant and any Builder but excluding in all cases any party holding an interest merely as security for the performance of an obligation. If a Unit is owned by more than one person, all such persons shall be jointly and severally obligated to perform the responsibilities of the Owner.

“Person” – A natural person, a corporation, a partnership, a limited liability company, a fiduciary acting on behalf of another person or any legal entity.

“Unit” – A portion of the property legally subdivided pursuant to one of the plats, whether improved or unimproved, which may be independently owned and conveyed, and which is intended for development, use, and occupancy as an attached or detached residence for a single family.
