

ELIZABETH SPRINGS

Enjoy convenient access to Wake Forest’s growing greenway network from Shingle Oak Road. The nearby paths wind through peaceful wooded areas and connect with the Elizabeth Springs and Austin Creek greenway corridors, with connections to the broader Wake Forest greenway network and neighboring Rolesville. The paths offer a convenient way to walk, run, or bike while enjoying the outdoors and accessing nearby neighborhoods and community amenities without having to travel by car. With greenway connections extending into Rolesville, residents can enjoy an expanding network of trails and outdoor spaces. All close to home!
