In Holding Village, location shapes your daily routine: morning walks around the lake, afternoons at the neighborhood pool, miles of trails, and shopping, dining, and historic downtown Wake Forest just minutes away.

At 417 Bridgeton Avenue, that lifestyle pairs with a home built for the way people live now. A main-level guest bedroom offers privacy for visitors, a home office, or multigenerational living, while upstairs features the spacious primary suite, two additional bedrooms, and a versatile loft that can serve as a media room, playroom, or gym. The floor plan evolves alongside your needs, whether you're working remotely, welcoming guests, or looking for room to grow.

The heart of the home is an open-concept living area where the kitchen, dining, and gathering spaces come together, an inviting setting for weeknight dinners or hosting friends. Natural light enhances the warm feel, and the screened porch extends the living space outdoors, with thoughtful design and a prime Wake Forest location rounding out the appeal.
