

SQUARE FOOTAGE DISCLOSURE

The measurements and square footage have been made and calculated by the listing agent, a licensed real estate agent or by someone experienced on behalf of the agent. The agent or listing company has entered them into multiple listing services. The information is deemed to be reliable but not guaranteed.

Room measurements and square footage can be imprecise and some dwellings are more difficult due to their shape. You may wish to seek the assistance of a State licensed or State certified appraiser or experienced engineer or architect to calculate the square footage for you.
