

SHORT SALE ADDENDUM

NOTE: The Back-Up Contract Addendum (form 2A1-T) should NOT be used in conjunction with this form when more than one contract of sale is being signed by Seller, as this form manages multiple contracts when necessary

Property: 3620 Iron Sight Ct, Raleigh, NC 27616

Seller: RICHARD F BREWER, CAROLINE MENESES ASSIS BREWER

Buyer: _____

This Addendum is attached to and made a part of the Offer to Purchase and Contract ("Contract") between Seller and Buyer for the Property.

1. Short Sale Defined: For purposes of this Contract, a "Short Sale" is a sale where:
 - (a) the Purchase Price is or may be insufficient to enable Seller to pay the costs of sale, which include but are not limited to the Seller's closing costs and payment in full of all loans or debts secured by deeds of trust on the Property due and owing to one or more lender(s) and/or other lienholders ("Lienholders");
 - (b) Seller does not or may not have sufficient liquid assets to pay the costs of sale; and,
 - (c) the Lienholders agree to release or discharge their liens upon payment of an amount less than the amount secured by their liens with or without the Seller being released from any further liability.
2. Short Sale Approval Risks: Buyer and Seller understand and agree that:
 - No Lienholder is required or obligated to approve a Short Sale
 - Lienholders may require some terms of the Contract be amended in exchange for approval of a Short Sale, including acceleration of the Due Diligence Period and Settlement Date
 - Buyer and Seller are not obligated to agree to any of Lienholders' proposed terms
 - Seller may not be financially able to make any repairs to the Property that Buyer may request. The Seller's inability to make repairs shall not affect any rights that Buyer may have to terminate the Contract.
 - The costs of Due Diligence and any Due Diligence Fee usually are not refundable to Buyer in the event the Short Sale is not approved.
 - Lienholders' approval may take several weeks or months to obtain, and neither the Seller nor any real estate agent representing Seller or Buyer can guarantee the timeliness of Lienholders' review, approval or rejection.
 - NEITHER THE BUYER, THE SELLER, THE CLOSING ATTORNEY NOR THE BROKERS IN THIS TRANSACTION HAVE ANY CONTROL OVER LIENHOLDERS' APPROVAL, OR ANY ACT, OMISSION OR DECISION BY ANY LIENHOLDERS IN THE SHORT SALE PROCESS.
3. Contingency: This Contract is contingent upon Seller obtaining written approval for a Short Sale from all Lienholders whose approval is necessary to enable Seller to close and convey title in accordance with the Contract, which approval shall be effective through Closing upon terms which are acceptable to Seller ("Short Sale Approval").
4. Notice of Seller's Acceptance of Lienholders' Approval and Parties' Right to Terminate: Upon obtaining written Short Sale Approval from all necessary Lienholders, Seller agrees to promptly provide Buyer with written notice of Seller's acceptance of Lienholders' approval ("Notice of Approval of Short Sale"). Until Notice of Approval of Short Sale, either party may terminate the Contract by written notice to the other party and the Earnest Money Deposit shall be refunded to Buyer.
5. Due Diligence/Settlement Date:
 - (a) Buyer and Seller agree that the Due Diligence Period of this Contract shall extend through 5:00 p.m. on the fifteenth (15th) day (or the _____ day, if this blank is completed) following Seller's delivery to Buyer of Notice of Approval of Short Sale, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE.
 - (b) Buyer acknowledges that it could be of substantial benefit to Buyer to conduct any and all Due Diligence soon after the Effective Date. Doing so enables Buyer to inform Seller of defects or other matters that may affect Lienholder approval, allows Buyer to determine that the Property is suitable and that Buyer can obtain financing, and allows the parties to avoid unnecessary delays.

- (c) Buyer and Seller agree that the Settlement Date of this Contract shall be on the thirtieth (30th) day (or the _____ day, if this blank is completed) following Seller's delivery to Buyer of Notice of Approval of Short Sale.

NOTE: Instead of inserting dates in the "Due Diligence Period" and "Settlement Date" blanks in the Contract, insert "See attached Short Sale Addendum".

6. Other Offers/Additional Contracts:

- (a) Rules of the NC Real Estate Commission require offers from other buyers received by the Seller's Agent to be presented to the Seller. The NC Real Estate Commission also requires the Seller's Agent to inform Lienholders of all offers and contracts of sale on the Property received after a request for a Short Sale has been submitted by such Agent to any Lienholder.
- (b) Seller hereby represents to Buyer that there ☐ is ☐ is not an existing contract of sale on the Property ("Existing Sales Contract")
- (c) Offers from other buyers may be accepted by the Seller and become sales contracts ("Additional Sales Contract") Seller or Lienholders may, prior to the Notice of Approval of Short Sale, elect to substitute any Existing or Additional Sales Contract for approval by Lienholders and withdraw this Contract or any Existing or Additional Sales Contract from consideration by Lienholders.
- (d) Unless this Contract has been terminated, Seller shall promptly notify Buyer in writing of the occurrence of any of the following events:
- (i) Seller's acceptance of any Additional Sales Contract; or
 - (ii) Seller's or Lienholders' substitution of any Existing or Additional Sales Contract for this Contract for Lienholder approval; or
 - (iii) Short Sale Approval of any Additional Sales Contract; or
 - (iv) Seller's closing on any Existing or Additional Sales Contract.
- (e) If not sooner terminated by Buyer or Seller hereunder, this Contract shall become null and void upon the completion of closing of any Existing or Additional Sales Contract whether or not Seller notifies Buyer of any such closing, and any Earnest Money Deposit shall be refunded to Buyer.

7. Foreclosure: Seller represents that to the best of Seller's knowledge, a foreclosure proceeding ☐ has not ☐ has been filed with respect to the Property. Further, if during the Short Sale process a foreclosure proceeding is filed, the Seller shall disclose such foreclosure filing to the Buyer. Buyer and Seller understand that if Closing does not occur before the completion of a foreclosure of the Property, Seller will lose all rights and interest in the Property. In such event, the Contract shall be void, and the Earnest Money Deposit shall be refunded to Buyer.

8. Bankruptcy: Seller represents that Seller ☐ is ☒ is not under bankruptcy protection under United States law. If Seller files a bankruptcy proceeding, Seller shall promptly disclose such filing in writing to Buyer.

9. Tax Consequences and Advice: Seller is advised to seek advice from an attorney, a certified public accountant or other professional regarding the credit, legal and tax consequences of a Short Sale.

IN THE EVENT OF A CONFLICT BETWEEN THIS ADDENDUM AND THE CONTRACT, THIS ADDENDUM SHALL CONTROL, EXCEPT THAT IN THE CASE OF SUCH A CONFLICT AS TO THE DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OR THE IDENTITY OF THE BUYER OR SELLER, THE CONTRACT SHALL CONTROL.

This disclosure will serve as an independent agreement and relates to the contract executed by the buyer and seller named above. It is expressly understood by all parties that the seller owes more than the amount of the contract and is unable to bring cash to closing, therefore the sale will require the approval of the lender. Please note that the property may remain on the market for the purpose of accepting backup offers until the lender approves a contract, and the property will be listed on MLS as undergoing a short sale.

Following are some potential issues that can affect a short sale:

1. After the lender receives the short sale packet, the lender may require at least 30-45 business days to approve the short sale. After approval, the sale must close within lender approved time frame, typically 30-45 calendar days.
2. The seller will receive no cash from this transaction. Any funds usually due to the seller will be paid to the lender.
3. The seller has no additional cash and will be unable to pay for any closing costs, such as the buyer's appraisal or home warranty. Should the buyer desire a home warranty they are free to purchase one at closing.
4. The seller may be unable to pay for maintaining the property. The property will remain in the current condition through closing; the seller will not be able to make any repairs to the property.
5. The seller's broker will split the commission __50%/50%__ with the buyer's broker on any commission typically paid by the lender. Please note that since the lender is taking less than what is owed to them in a short sale, the lender in some cases may negotiate a lower commission percentage than is customary.
6. The seller's forgiven or cancelled debt may be taxable income. The seller should discuss this matter with a tax professional. This has no bearing whatsoever on the buyer.
7. In some cases the lender may pursue a deficiency judgment against the seller for any funds not collected at closing. This has no bearing whatsoever on the buyer.
8. The seller has received and acknowledges FTC MARS Disclosures.
9. By signing this disclosure, you acknowledge that you have read and understand these situations. Any changes to the commission rate will be provided by the lender at the time of the lender's final approval of this short sale.

3. You must respond to each of the following by placing a check ☒ in the appropriate box.

To cancel the contract, you must personally deliver or mail written notice of your decision to cancel to the owner or the owner's agent within three calendar days following your receipt of this Disclosure Statement, or three calendar days following the date of the contract, whichever occurs first. Residential Property And Owners'
Association Disclosure Statement

Protecting the Public Interest in Real Estate Brokerage Transactions

Property Address/Description: 3620 Iron Sight Court, Raleigh, NC 27616

Owner's Name(s): Richard Freeman Brewer and Caroline Meneses Assis Brewer

North Carolina law N.C.G.S. 47E requires residential property owners to complete this Disclosure Statement and provide it to the buyer prior to any offer to purchase. There are limited exemptions for completing the form, such as new home construction that has never been occupied. Owners are advised to seek legal advice if they believe they are entitled to one of the limited exemptions contained in N.C.G.S. 47E-2.

An owner is required to provide a response to every question by selecting Yes (Y), No (N), No Representation (NR), or Not Applicable (NA). An owner is not required to disclose any of the material facts that have a NR option, even if they have knowledge of them. However, failure to disclose latent (hidden) defects may result in civil liability. The disclosures made in this Disclosure Statement are those of the owner(s), not the owner's broker.

- If an owner selects Y or N, the owner is only obligated to disclose information about which they have actual knowledge. If an owner selects Y in response to any question about a problem, the owner must provide a written explanation or attach a report from an attorney, engineer, contractor, pest control operator, or other expert or public agency describing it.
- If an owner selects N, the owner has no actual knowledge of the topic of the question, including any problem. If the owner selects N and the owner knows there is a problem or that the owner's answer is not correct, the owner may be liable for making an intentional misstatement.
- If an owner selects NR, it could mean that the owner (1) has knowledge of an issue and chooses not to disclose it; or (2) simply does not know.
- If an owner selects NA, it means the property does not contain a particular item or feature.

For purposes of completing this Disclosure Statement: "Dwelling" means any structure intended for human habitation, "Property" means any structure intended for human habitation and the tract of land, and "Not Applicable" means the item does not apply to the property or exist on the property.

OWNERS: The owner must give a completed and signed Disclosure Statement to the buyer no later than the time the buyer makes an offer to purchase property. If the owner does not, the buyer can, under certain conditions, cancel any resulting contract. An owner is responsible for completing and delivering the Disclosure Statement to the buyer even if the owner is represented in the sale of the property by a licensed real estate broker and the broker must disclose any material facts about the property that the broker knows or reasonably should know, regardless of the owner's response.

The owner should keep a copy signed by the buyer for their records. If something happens to make the Disclosure Statement incorrect or inaccurate (for example, the roof begins to leak), the owner must promptly give the buyer an updated Disclosure Statement or correct the problem. Note that some issues, even if repaired, such as structural issues and fire damage, remain material facts and must be disclosed by a broker even after repairs are made.

BUYERS: The owner's responses contained in this Disclosure Statement are not a warranty and should not be a substitute for conducting a careful and independent evaluation of the property. Buyers are strongly encouraged to:

- Carefully review the entire Disclosure Statement.
- Obtain their own inspections from a licensed home inspector and/or other professional.

DO NOT assume that an answer of N or NR is a guarantee of no defect. If an owner selects N, that means the owner has no actual knowledge of any defects. It does not mean that a defect does not exist. If an owner selects NR, it could mean the owner (1) has knowledge of an issue and chooses not to disclose it, or (2) simply does not know.

BROKERS: A licensed real estate broker shall furnish their seller-client with a Disclosure Statement for the seller to complete in connection with the transaction. A broker shall obtain a completed copy of the Disclosure Statement and provide it to their buyer-client to review and sign. All brokers shall (1) review the completed Disclosure Statement to ensure the seller responded to all questions, (2) take reasonable steps to disclose material facts about the property that the broker knows or reasonably should know regardless of the owner's responses or representations, and (3) explain to the buyer that this Disclosure Statement does not replace an inspection and encourage the buyer to protect their interests by having the property fully examined to the buyer's satisfaction.

- Brokers are NOT permitted to complete this Disclosure Statement on behalf of their seller-clients.
- Brokers who own the property may select NR in this Disclosure Statement but are obligated to disclose material facts they know or reasonably should know about the property.
