We just had railings installed on the front steps with a beautifully lit solar lighting scheme up and down the railings. The laundry area has a washer and dryer which are only two years old. There is a new bidet installed on the toilet upstairs in the main bathroom. The refrigerator is only two years old. There is new insulation in the crawl space. There is a beautiful community pool and deck which is a really great feature that I have enjoyed immensely! The deck in the back of the house yields relative privacy. There is a fireplace in the livingroom.
