Living room with built-ins

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

Freshly refinished hardwood floors and built-in cabinets create a polished gathering space with storage and display shelving. Fresh paint and updated lighting complete the refresh.

A dedicated dining space

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

A separate dining room offers space for hosting, celebrations, or everyday meals. Refinished hardwood floors and fresh paint keep the room bright and welcoming.

Quartz makes a statement

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

Quartz countertops and backsplash pair with abundant cabinetry, new hardware, and upgraded black stainless steel appliances for a stylish chef's kitchen.

New electric range • Quartz surfaces • Updated cabinet hardware

A fresh perspective

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

Luxury vinyl flooring, new LED lighting, and generous preparation surfaces complement the kitchen's refreshed finishes. The adjoining casual dining area keeps meals and gatherings connected.

Natural light at the table

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

The spacious casual dining area enjoys natural light and a convenient connection to the kitchen—an inviting spot for morning coffee, everyday meals, and relaxed gatherings.

A comfortable primary suite

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

The main-level primary bedroom offers privacy, a tray ceiling, new carpeting, fresh paint, and a new ceiling fan with LED lighting. Its connected bath and walk-in closet complete the retreat.

A polished daily routine

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

Quartz dual vanities, matte black faucets, LED-lit mirrors, and new vanity lighting bring a fresh finish to the spacious primary bathroom.

Space to unwind

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

A soaking tub and separate shower complement the primary bathroom's updated vanity surfaces, fixtures, and lighting.

Shelving that works for you

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

The primary walk-in closet features wooden shelving for organized storage. Wooden shelves throughout all closets bring a consistent, practical upgrade to the home.

A refreshed powder room

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

Fresh finishes, a matte black faucet, updated lighting, and new cabinet hardware give the main-level half bath a crisp, coordinated look.

A loft with a built-in desk

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

The upstairs loft includes a built-in desk with a quartz top, creating a useful place for work, study, or household organization.

Bright secondary bedroom

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

New carpeting, fresh paint, and updated ceiling lighting refresh the secondary bedrooms. Two upstairs bedrooms connect through a convenient Jack-and-Jill bathroom.

Comfortable secondary spaces

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

The upstairs layout offers space for bedrooms and changing needs, with wooden closet shelves and updated finishes throughout.

Shared bath, fresh finishes

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

The Jack-and-Jill bathroom connects two secondary bedrooms. Quartz surfaces, matte black faucets, updated lighting, and refreshed hardware carry the home's coordinated finishes upstairs.

An additional bedroom

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

A third secondary bedroom adds flexibility alongside the loft and bonus spaces. New carpeting and fresh paint create a clean starting point for your own style.

An additional full bath

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

An additional upstairs full bathroom serves the flexible upper-level layout, with refreshed vanity finishes, updated hardware, and new lighting.

Think beyond the ordinary

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

One of two massive bonus rooms offers possibilities for a media room, playroom, gym, home office, or hobby space. New carpeting and fresh paint make it easy to imagine your own setup.

Room for your next chapter

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

The second expansive bonus room adds another generous space for recreation, work, or relaxing. The upper level combines bedrooms, baths, a loft, and two bonus rooms in a versatile arrangement.

Screened porch

Thoughtfully designed for everyday living

Enjoy the screened porch and a spacious, freshly painted deck with room for grilling and relaxing. A hot tub on the deck adds another place to unwind.

A Community to come home to

Pemberley's neighborhood setting

Located in Pemberley, this corner-lot home sits in an established Wake Forest neighborhood with curbs and sidewalks. The home's screened porch, deck, and yard create inviting places to enjoy the setting close to everyday conveniences.

Discover downtown

Downtown Wake Forest brings together local restaurants, coffee shops, specialty stores, boutiques, and art galleries. Its compact, walkable center makes it easy to pair dinner with browsing and exploring.

Arts & community experiences

The Wake Forest Renaissance Centre at 405 S. Brooks Street hosts live performances, visual arts, classes, and community celebrations—a nearby destination for a night out or a new interest.

Room to explore outdoors

E. Carroll Joyner Park offers 117 acres, restored farm buildings, a pecan grove, an amphitheater, and three miles of paved walking trails. It is a welcoming destination for an outdoor afternoon.

Connected to everyday life

Wegmans, Walmart, and Sam's Club are all within a short drive. Capital Boulevard and NC 98 provide access to the wider area, while downtown Wake Forest adds dining and entertainment close to home.
