 NOTE REGARDING RADON AND OTHER ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ISSUES TESTING: In addition to testing for the presence of radon, consideration should be given to testing the air and any private drinking well water for the presence of other contaminants, including but not limited to, biological, chemical, and radiological contaminants. Buyer or Seller should consult with an air and/or water quality specialist regarding the need for and scope of any such testing.

*NOTE REGARDING SURVEYS: Situations arise all too often that could have been avoided if the buyer had obtained a new survey from a NC registered surveyor. A survey will normally reveal such things as encroachments on the Property from adjacent properties (fences, driveways, etc.); encroachments from the Property onto adjacent properties; road or utility easements crossing the Property; violations of set-back lines; lack of legal access to a public right-of-way; and indefinite or erroneous legal descriptions in previous deeds to the Property. Although title insurance companies may provide lender coverage without a new survey, the owner's policy contains an exception for easements, set-backs and other matters which would have been shown on a survey. Many such matters are not public record and would not be included in an attorney's title examination. In addition, if the buyer does not obtain their own survey, they would have no claim against a surveyor for inaccuracies in a prior survey.

OTHER IMPORTANT NOTES:

- ALTHOUGH FIRM MAY PROVIDE BUYER OR SELLER THE NAMES OF PROVIDERS WHO CLAIM TO PERFORM SERVICES IN ONE OR MORE OF THE LISTED AREAS, BUYER OR SELLER UNDERSTANDS THAT FIRM CANNOT GUARANTEE THE QUALITY OF SERVICE OR LEVEL OF EXPERTISE OF ANY SUCH PROVIDER.
- BUYER OR SELLER AGREES TO PAY THE FULL AMOUNT DUE FOR ALL SERVICES DIRECTLY TO THE SERVICE PROVIDER WHETHER OR NOT THE TRANSACTION CLOSSES.

NC REALTORS® MAKES NO REPRESENTATION AS TO THE LEGAL VALIDITY OR ADEQUACY OF ANY PROVISION OF THIS FORM IN ANY SPECIFIC TRANSACTION.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
MINERAL AND OIL AND GAS RIGHTS MANDATORY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Instructions to Property Owners

1. The Residential Property Disclosure Act (G.S. 47E) ("Disclosure Act") requires owners of certain residential real estate such as single-family homes, individual condominiums, townhouses, and the like, and buildings with up to four dwelling units, to furnish purchasers a Mineral and Oil and Gas Rights Disclosure Statement ("Disclosure Statement"). This form is the only one approved for this purpose.
2. A disclosure statement is not required for some transactions. For a complete list of exemptions, see G.S. 47E-2(a). A DISCLOSURE STATEMENT IS REQUIRED FOR THE TRANSFERS IDENTIFIED IN G.S. 47E-2(b), including transfers involving the first sale of a dwelling never inhabited, lease with option to purchase contracts where the lessee occupies or intends to occupy the dwelling, and transfers between parties when both parties agree not to provide the Residential Property and Owner's Association Disclosure Statement.
3. You must respond to each of the following by placing a check ☒ in the appropriate box.

MINERAL AND OIL AND GAS RIGHTS DISCLOSURE

Mineral rights and/or oil and gas rights can be severed from the title to real property by conveyance (deed) of the mineral rights and/or oil and gas rights from the owner or by reservation of the mineral rights and/or oil and gas rights by the owner. If mineral rights and/or oil and gas rights are or will be severed from the property, the owner of those rights may have the perpetual right to drill, mine, explore, and remove any of the subsurface mineral and/or oil or gas resources on or from the property either directly from the surface of the property or from a nearby location. With regard to the severance of mineral rights and/or oil and gas rights, Seller makes the following disclosures:

To cancel the contract, you must personally deliver or mail written notice of your decision to cancel to the owner or the owner's agent within three calendar days following your receipt of this Disclosure Statement, or three calendar days following the date of the contract, whichever occurs first. However, in no event does the Disclosure Act permit you to cancel a contract after settlement of the transaction or (in the case of a sale or exchange) after you have occupied the property, whichever occurs first.

NORTH CAROLINA REAL ESTATE COMMISSION

Residential Property And Owners' Association Disclosure Statement

Protecting the Public Interest in Real Estate Brokerage Transactions

Property Address/Description: 118 N BULLOCK ST HENDERSON, NC 27536

Owner's Name(s): Jose Cristobal Bonilla

North Carolina law N.C.G.S. 47E requires residential property owners to complete this Disclosure Statement and provide it to the buyer prior to any offer to purchase. There are limited exemptions for completing the form, such as new home construction that has never been occupied. Owners are advised to seek legal advice if they believe they are entitled to one of the limited exemptions contained in N.C.G.S. 47E-2.

An owner is required to provide a response to every question by selecting Yes (Y), No (N), No Representation (NR), or Not Applicable (NA). An owner is not required to disclose any of the material facts that have a NR option, even if they have knowledge of them. However, failure to disclose latent (hidden) defects may result in civil liability. The disclosures made in this Disclosure Statement are those of the owner(s), not the owner's broker.

- If an owner selects Y or N, the owner is only obligated to disclose information about which they have actual knowledge. If an owner selects Y in response to any question about a problem, the owner must provide a written explanation or attach a report from an attorney, engineer, contractor, pest control operator, or other expert or public agency describing it.
- If an owner selects N, the owner has no actual knowledge of the topic of the question, including any problem. If the owner selects N and the owner knows there is a problem or that the owner's answer is not correct, the owner may be liable for making an intentional misstatement.
- If an owner selects NR, it could mean that the owner (1) has knowledge of an issue and chooses not to disclose it; or (2) simply does not know.
- If an owner selects NA, it means the property does not contain a particular item or feature.

For purposes of completing this Disclosure Statement: "Dwelling" means any structure intended for human habitation, "Property" means any structure intended for human habitation and the tract of land, and "Not Applicable" means the item does not apply to the property or exist on the property.

OWNERS: The owner must give a completed and signed Disclosure Statement to the buyer no later than the time the buyer makes an offer to purchase property. If the owner does not, the buyer can, under certain conditions, cancel any resulting contract. An owner is responsible for completing and delivering the Disclosure Statement to the buyer even if the owner is represented in the sale of the property by a licensed real estate broker and the broker must disclose any material facts about the property that the broker knows or reasonably should know, regardless of the owner's response.

The owner should keep a copy signed by the buyer for their records. If something happens to make the Disclosure Statement incorrect or inaccurate (for example, the roof begins to leak), the owner must promptly give the buyer an updated Disclosure Statement or correct the problem. Note that some issues, even if repaired, such as structural issues and fire damage, remain material facts and must be disclosed by a broker even after repairs are made.

BUYERS: The owner's responses contained in this Disclosure Statement are not a warranty and should not be a substitute for conducting a careful and independent evaluation of the property. Buyers are strongly encouraged to:

- Carefully review the entire Disclosure Statement.
- Obtain their own inspections from a licensed home inspector and/or other professional.

DO NOT assume that an answer of N or NR is a guarantee of no defect. If an owner selects N, that means the owner has no actual knowledge of any defects. It does not mean that a defect does not exist. If an owner selects NR, it could mean the owner (1) has knowledge of an issue and chooses not to disclose it, or (2) simply does not know.

BROKERS: A licensed real estate broker shall furnish their seller-client with a Disclosure Statement for the seller to complete in connection with the transaction. A broker shall obtain a completed copy of the Disclosure Statement and provide it to their buyer-client to review and sign. All brokers shall (1) review the completed Disclosure Statement to ensure the seller responded to all questions, (2) take reasonable steps to disclose material facts about the property that the broker knows or reasonably should know regardless of the owner's responses or representations, and (3) explain to the buyer that this Disclosure Statement does not replace an inspection and encourage the buyer to protect their interests by having the property fully examined to the buyer's satisfaction.

- Brokers are NOT permitted to complete this Disclosure Statement on behalf of their seller-clients.
- Brokers who own the property may select NR in this Disclosure Statement but are obligated to disclose material facts they know or reasonably should know about the property.

Working With Real Estate Agents Disclosure (For Sellers)

IMPORTANT

This form is not a contract. Signing this disclosure only means you have received it.

- In a real estate sales transaction, it is important that you understand whether an agent represents you.
- Real estate agents are required to (1) review this form with you at first substantial contact - before asking for or receiving your confidential information and (2) give you a copy of the form after you sign it. This is for your own protection.
- Do not share any confidential information with a real estate agent or assume that the agent is acting on your behalf until you have entered into a written agreement with the agent to represent you. Otherwise, the agent can share your confidential information with others.

Note to Agent: Check all relationship types below that may apply to this seller.

☒ Seller's Agency (listing agent): The agent who gave you this form (and the agent's firm) must enter into a written listing agreement with you before they begin to market your property for sale. If you sign the listing agreement, the listing firm and its agents would then represent you. The buyer would either be represented by an agent affiliated with a different real estate firm or be unrepresented.

☒ Dual Agency: Dual agency will occur if your listing firm has a buyer-client who wants to purchase your property. If you agree in a written agency agreement, the real estate firm, and any agent with the same firm (company), would be permitted to represent you and the buyer at the same time. A dual agent's loyalty would be divided between you and the buyer, but the firm and its agents must treat you and the buyer fairly and equally and cannot help you gain an advantage over the other party.

☐ Designated Dual Agency: If you agree in a written agency agreement, the real estate firm would represent both you and the buyer, but the firm would designate one agent to represent you and a different agent to represent the buyer. Each designated agent would be loyal only to their client.

☐ Buyer Agent Working with an Unrepresented Seller (For Sale By Owner, "FSBO"): The agent who gave you this form will not be representing you and has no loyalty to you. The agent will represent only the buyer. Do not share any confidential information with this agent.

Note to Seller: For more information on an agent's duties and services, refer to the NC Real Estate Commission's "Questions and Answers on: Working With Real Estate Agents" brochure at ncrec.gov (Publications, Q&A Brochures) or ask an agent for a copy of it.

☐ A flat fee of $ _____

☐ Other Fee(s) (specify name and amount): _____

- c. Cooperative Compensation to Other Agents: Seller has no duty to offer compensation to an agent working with a buyer, which is commonly referred to as cooperative compensation. Firm has provided Seller with Firm's best advice on the advantages and disadvantages of offering, or not offering, cooperative compensation. Seller accordingly ☐ does ☐ does not agree to offer cooperative compensation. If Seller does agree, check one of the following:

☐ Firm is authorized to offer _____ % of the gross sales price of the Property or a flat amount of $ _____ to a cooperating agent, such as a seller subagent or a buyer's agent.

☒ Seller may offer 2.4 % of the gross sales price of the Property or a flat amount of $ _____ to a cooperating agent, such as a seller subagent or a buyer's agent, directly through a separate document (such as Standard Form 220).

☐ Firm will offer cooperative compensation as explained in Firm's attached policy.

- i. If Seller authorizes Firm to offer cooperative compensation, Seller agrees that: (a) Firm may advertise and negotiate cooperative compensation on Seller's behalf; (b) any negotiated cooperative compensation must be paid by Seller to Firm at closing in addition to Firm's Fee; and (c) the negotiated cooperative compensation will be disbursed to the cooperating agent by Firm.

- ii. If Seller offers cooperative compensation directly, Seller authorizes Firm to advertise the cooperative compensation. Seller agrees to pay cooperative compensation at closing in compliance with any executed cooperative compensation agreement (such as Standard Form 220).

- iii. Nothing in this section will prohibit Seller from later offering to pay buyer's expenses in a purchase contract or later offering cooperative compensation directly to a cooperating agent in a separate document

- d. Total Cost (Firm's Fee + Cooperative Compensation): 6% _____

- e. Firm's Fee Earned: Except for any non-refundable retainer, Firm's Fee will be earned:

- i. If a ready, able, and willing buyer is procured by Firm or a cooperating agent substantially satisfying the price and terms agreed to by Seller in this Agreement.

- ii. Seller enters into a written contract ("Contract") during the term of this Agreement to sell, option, or convey the Property to a buyer.

- iii. Protection Period: The fee will also be deemed earned if, within 45 days after this Agreement expires, Seller either directly or indirectly agrees to sell, option, or convey the Property to any party procured by Firm while this Agreement was in effect. Within 15 days after the Expiration Date, Firm will deliver to Seller a list of the names of parties procured by Firm to which this protection period will apply. However, if Seller signs a valid listing agreement with another real estate broker before Seller agrees to sell, option, or convey the Property, then this protection period will not apply.

- f. Due and Payable: Any Firm's Fee earned will be due and payable to Firm at closing of a Contract, Seller's default on a Contract, Seller's unreasonable modification or cancellation of a Contract, or Seller's default of this Agreement (including Seller's refusal to sign an offer to purchase substantially satisfying the price and terms agreed to by Seller in this Agreement).

8. Home Warranty: Seller ☐ does ☒ does not agree to purchase a home warranty for the Property. If Seller does agree, the vendor, cost, sales tax, and Firm's compensation from vendor, if any, will not exceed: _____

- c. Any due diligence fee will be paid to either ☒ Seller or ☐ (insert other party or parties): _____
Firm agrees to direct any potential buyer accordingly.
- d. Seller authorizes Firm to provide any escrow agent with Seller's mailing address.

11. Dual Agency: Dual agency occurs when a real estate firm represents both the seller and the buyer in a transaction. Designated dual agency is a specific type of dual agency where a firm will appoint one agent to represent only the interests of the seller and a different agent to represent only the interests of the buyer. Designated dual agency permits a firm to fully advise and advocate for both a buyer and a seller as if the appointed agents were not both affiliated with the same firm. Not every real estate firm offers dual agency or designated dual agency. Authorizations available below may vary.

- a. Terms of Dual Agency: If dual agency is permitted, Seller understands and agrees to the following:
- Firm will act as Seller's exclusive agent up until dual agency occurs. However, in its separate representation of Seller and a buyer, Firm may obtain information which, if disclosed, could harm Seller's bargaining position.
 - Seller will have to make their own decisions as to what terms will be agreed to as part of an offer to purchase unless designated dual agency is directed by Seller below.
 - Unless required by law, Firm will not disclose to a buyer: that Seller may agree to a price or contract terms different than what Seller has offered; Seller's motivation for wanting to sell a property; and any other information that Seller has told Firm is confidential. Firm will similarly not reveal to Seller the same kind of information as it relates to a buyer.
 - Firm will represent Seller and the buyer in a balanced and fair manner, and Firm will assist both parties in their communications regarding the transaction. However, Firm will be limited in its ability to advocate for Seller, like an exclusive agent would, unless designated dual agency is directed below.
 - If designated dual agency is directed, an agent in Firm will not be designated to represent Seller or the buyer if that agent has received confidential information concerning the other party.
 - Seller has determined that the advantages of dual agency outweigh the disadvantages.

b. Authorizations: Initial only as applicable below.

- c. Material Facts: Regardless of whether dual agency is authorized, Firm must disclose any material facts to all parties in a transaction. This duty applies whether Firm is Seller's exclusive agent or a dual agent, including designated dual agency.
- d. Waiver: Should Firm become a dual agent, Seller waives all claims, damages, losses, expenses, and liabilities, other than for violations of the NC Real Estate License Law and intentional wrongful acts arising from Firm's role as a dual agent.
