Warranty Certificate

The following product(s) and material(s) installed by Triangle Radiant Barrier (TRB) at the address listed below are warranted to be free from defects in material quality and workmanship as follows:

- 10-mil reinforced (or better) vapor barrier: non-transferable limited lifetime warranty (transferable only with active Annual Service Plan)
- Open and Closed cell spray foam: non-transferable limited lifetime warranty (transferable only with active Annual Service Plan)
- CrawlBarrier® insulation: non-transferable limited lifetime warranty (transferable only with active Annual Service Plan)
- Bora-Foam® rigid foam board insulation: non-transferable limited lifetime warranty (transferable only with active Annual Service Plan)

All claims under this warranty are limited to the replacement of defective, originally-installed materials. This Warranty does not apply to any issues or damages as a result mechanical damage, misuse, tampering, mishandling, abuse, accident, alteration, or acts of God. The property owner must notify TRB within fifteen days of discovery of any warranty issues. To fulfill its warranty obligation, TRB shall repair or replace defective product if defect is validated by warranty inspection. TRB is not liable for any consequential, incidental, or special damages beyond the obligation to repair or replace defective product. TRB is not liable for any consequential, incidental, or special damages as a result of the homeowner's failure to promptly (either immediately or within fifteen days) and effectively notify TRB of warranty claim. This Warranty constitutes TRB's entire Warranty.

"Lifetime" as it pertains to "lifetime warranty" is defined as the Customer's ownership of the subject property.

The above items listed as "transferable" are transferable to one transferee and shall remain in effect for the duration of the single transferee's ownership of said property, or until another condition of this Warranty voids said Warranty. To be eligible, the transferee must be specifically named on the deed or other instrument which legally transfers the ownership to the property, proof of which much be furnished to TRB. Except as stated herein, no other warranties shall apply. This Warranty is void until such time as associated invoice(s) and balance(s) are paid in full.

TRB may require photographs of claimant's concerns(s) prior to scheduling warranty inspection pertaining to either material or labor warranty claim(s), at TRB's discretion.

All mechanical devices (dehumidifiers, radon fans, sump pump, sensors, etc) are covered by their respective manufacturer warranty and TRB provides no direct warranty. Any request for service would entail a separately-negotiated service fee.

Any item(s), product(s), or material(s) not listed above is/are not warranted.

All labor is warranted for one calendar year starting on the date when all contracted work has been installed.
